FRIDAY, JANUARY 27, 2012

The Character Education word for January is “Responsible”

The Quote of the day: “Learning is the discovery that something is possible.”

~Fritz Perls

Today’s Lunch Menu: Chili with Fritos and Cheese, Flat Bread Pizza, Tuna Salad with Yogurt, Slaw, Fresh Vegetables, Choice of Fruit

Any students interested in traveling to Washington D.C. to see our nation’s capital and tour the city this spring with Mrs. Spooner and Mrs. Howard should stop by and see Mrs. Spooner in room 211 to get registration materials. We still have room on the trip and it is not too late to go. If your parents have questions please contact Mrs. Spooner. The last day to register for Washington DC is February 24.

Attention Library Goddess Bloggers: Our deadline is coming up...January 27 is the last day to have read, tested, and blogged on all 12 books! However, if all 50 tickets are not claimed by then, students can still sign up, so watch the blog.

We are getting some great recipes for the 28th Annual RMS Cookbook, but we have room for lots more. Bring in a family favorite and we will put it in the cookbook with your picture. The best recipes will be selected for the cooking contest next month. You can bring in a recipe for an appetizer, cookies and candies, desserts, main dishes, side dishes, and breads. Give recipes to your teacher or the office.

If you like to draw, you can design cookbook covers and compete for eight prizes. Give the artwork to your teacher or the office. You can enter as many times as you like.

Parents please encourage your child to stay every Tuesday and Thursday for Sylvan tutoring.

Consistent attendance is important for improving skills. The only exception will be a snow day, school called due to weather, and Thursday, February 16, unless this day is needed for a snow day.
