

Jr. Holiday Princess

By Sarah Brumett

Congratulations to Marissa McCall for becoming the 2011 Phelps County Fair Jr. Holiday Princess. It's great to have a RMS student win this award. I guess that's one more point to add to the RMS score board!

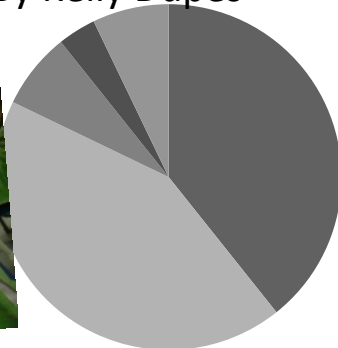

It's Your Life

By Matilda Guetersloh

What's right isn't always what's easy. So which path will you go down? Will you be one of the good guys, or will you be one of the bad? Life will get harder, decisions will get bigger, and you will fall farther. But the real question is, will you get up or will you stay on the ground? Remember, we all fall down and not all of us think we're strong enough to get back up but you are. You all are. No matter how many times you fall down, please I beg, always get back up. Stay strong. Be one of the good guys...because there's way too many of the bad. It's your decision for what you want your life to be. Maybe you want to be a doctor or a lawyer, but maybe something happens that makes you think you can't do it. Well guess what? You can do anything you want. Please, don't think less of yourself than you are and please don't be less than you can be. You can choose between being a good guy and being a bad guy. Please choose to be the good guy....because there are too many bad ones.

Favorite Holidays of Smack Dabbers

By Kelly Dupes

- Halloween
- Christmas
- 4th of July
- Thanksgiving
- New Year's

Deathly Hallows Part 2

(SPOILER!)

Review by Sarah Brumett

You have probably heard that The Deathly Hallows Part 2 is out. If you're thinking this is a terrible movie you're actually wrong. I watched it when it first came out and I loved it. There were great fight scenes and an ending I was pretty happy with (other than the fact one of my favorite characters died). I would personally recommend this movie to any Harry Potter fan.

