

Student Poems

By Esther George

Colorado is where my family's going.

Happy New Year's comes right after.

Racing through the snow on sleds.

It's beginning to feel like the holidays.

Snow is what I'm wishing for!

Taste testing cookies for my Nana.

Maybe I'll get a cell phone.

Always love the holiday cheer!

Delightful time of the year

Egg nog drinking

Candy canes are bought

End of the year

Music is Christmasy

Beautiful snow

Eating cookies

Red and green are popular colors

By Taylor Young

Sun sun so beautifully bright

With your own blinding light

Nothing but your glow insight

Lead me through this hallowed plight.
